Chris announced at the end of this season, that he will be taking next year off, he left it at 99% sure, "He said" he could possibly be back the following year" For the clubs sake, we he does.

It will not be the same next season, hearing that familiar call we have heard for the last 20 years, "Last call for tickets". His week starts with preparing the tickets in groups of 5 strips of 3, staple them, and on his way to the park, pick up the prizes. At the park, he makes his first round selling the tickets in between games, then plays a game and then makes his final round, tears the tickets up with the help of a few of the members from the "A" division. At the end of the year, hands in his report on the weekly sales, cost of prizes, shootout, and proudly announces how much he has raised. "No body does it better"

He lead the "A" division for over 10 years, won the "A" 10 times, won the player of the Week several times, and in 2015 won the Glen Barton award. His club average since 1995 is 46.0%, his best year was in 1996 51.0%.
